Golden Gleam: Study group which seeks to fully understand scripture and discover the best realistic ways to apply it to our individual lives in today's society and world. We do this through guided discussions with minimal lectures. Friendships are important as we remember and care for each other.

Fellowship: Excels at deep Bible study and strong fellowship. Each Sunday we read, study and meditate on scripture, prayer and spiritual practices. We love to laugh and gather for fellowship as we share life together.

Spiritual Seekers: Using a study guide, this group invites everyone to contribute from their personal experiences with God and with other believers as we study God's word. Our study blends lecture and discussion. Trusting the Holy Spirit to guide us, we believe we live and grow by asking honest questions about scripture and by sharing varied points of view in a loving and respectful manner. Group members enjoy the sacred fellowship of mutual concern and support for each other.

Explorers: Have questions? Want answers? We use a question-and-answer format as we focus on scripture. Discussion is enhanced by placing the scripture being studied in the context of history and place and other scriptures. Expect a lively, spiritual learning experience!

Trellis Covenant: We gather with one purpose: to become better disciples of Jesus Christ. Through the practices of the Trellis (Worship, Bible, Prayer, Mission, Generosity, Identity, Rest and Fellowship) we will become more intentional in our life with God. Our Covenant will guide us to good works, mutual accountability, and love for one another and others. Readings have included I Am (Lisa TerKuerst) and Old Testament Characters (Peter Scazzero).
